

Let Us Show You

How we can save you money on OVERCOATS at $16.00

We are in position to offer you exceptional values in overcoats and suits at $10 to $25

all sizes, styles and fabrics to fit and suit the most particular customer.

Before you buy your new overcoat or suit it will mean a saving if you will only come in and look over our line.

We are always glad to show our garments.

Lamson & Hubbard

HATS

Elite

SHOES

Waterman's
The Store of Quality

"The Real Man's Store."

BRIGGS' DRUG STORE

Bring us your
PRESCRIPTIONS
Because the compounding of PRESCRIPTIONS is our specialty

BRIGGS' DRUG STORE
MORRISVILLE, VERMONT

Again We Say

We are trying to give Morrisville people the best bakery and lunch room service they ever had.

We Deliver

Bakery goods anywhere in the village. Orders for Baked Beans and Brown Bread may be given in advance by telephone.

A. C. SULHAM, Prop'r
Morrisville, Vermont

ATTENTION!

This is the time to have your FURS, FUR COATS and LADIES' FUR SETS repaired or made over. Also cleaned by our French Dry Cleaning process. Don't wait, bring in your work TODAY and we will not keep YOU waiting.

J. L. GOODKIN
Morrisville, Vermont

Lamoille County's only Ladies' and Gents' Tailor.

NEATNESS OUR SPECIALTY

No botch work here. We STRIVE FOR PRINTING NEATNESS.

OUR TYPE IS THE BEST AND LATEST AND PRINTS CLEAN

West Hill

Mrs. Frank Hinds is very much pleased at the return of her dog. Chas. Zanah of Albany, N. Y., is guest of his uncle, Jack Zanah.

Mrs. Ellen Thayer and Mrs. Gertrude Hinds visited at the home of Geo. Sanborn in Stowe Sunday.

Mrs. Owen Coan of St. Albans returned home this morning from a visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Geo. Robson.

Miss Myrtle Culver of Stowe and Everett May of Waterbury Center were guests at the home of Wren Godfrey Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Culver and daughter, Christina, of Middlebury, were guests from Friday till Monday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Wisley.

Bert Koot and wife of Stowe, Joel Chase and wife of Waterbury and Elbridge Fuller and wife of Waterbury were guests at the home of Silas Chase Sunday.

Next Friday night there will be a dance at the house of Silas Chase and wife in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary. There will be a picnic supper served by the ladies.

Miss Beulah Hayford gave a Community Halowe'en party at the No. 15 school house last Saturday evening, when a large number of students, parents and friends were present. Games and contests furnished amusement for the evening; the prize winners in the contests being Ida Mae Thayer, Bernice McKee and Arthur Douglass. Boxes were sold, the proceeds to be used to buy new curtains for the school house. Altogether it was a very enjoyable affair.

Elmore

M. O. Lee has returned from Hyde Park, where he has been moving some buildings.

A. C. Bedell has completed some extensive improvements upon his farm buildings, including painting, both inside and out, grading the yard and in front of the barn.

Elmore people are pleased at the prospect of the steam sawmill starting up again. D. H. Bedell, who recently purchased the mill of Levi Senesac, will put in a stock this fall and is ready to buy logs now.

MORRISVILLE

Harlie Wilson was at home from Montpelier over Sunday.

Mrs. D. W. Lawson of Northfield visited her husband here from Thursday until Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Lawson visited his parents in East Elmore Saturday.

J. S. Carpenter is connecting his farm buildings with spring water, which he is piping from a hill east of his home. Chas. Rand and A. V. Hollis have purchased a spring on the W. L. Durgan farm for the same purpose.

Hon. George A. Morse is making extensive repairs, alterations and improvements upon his residence on Congress street, including a fireplace in the parlor, which is being built by Mike Murphy and W. H. Towne. A dormer window has also been built in the ell part.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Cheney entertained "Larry" Gardner and his mother from Enosburg Falls at lunch last Wednesday. They were returning from Boston by automobile, where "Larry" recently took part in the World Series, being one of the strongest men in the Red Sox infield.

The following letters are advertised at the Morrisville postoffice:—Mrs. P. J. Barnes, Miss Myrtle Baker, Jose Fuller, Miss Btta M. Foster, Mrs. A. R. Finley, Mr. Clarence Gravin, Mr. M. G. Johnson, Mrs. Frank Kellogg, Mrs. Abbie Lockwood, Miss Alice Leach, Mrs. Albert Manley, Mrs. Gray Maynard, Mrs. Max Rotter (2), A. Thomas, Mrs. William Woods.

Miss Mary Gates, who is teaching in Proctor, was a guest several days the past week of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gates. Mr. and Mrs. Gates and Miss Mary, accompanied by Mrs. A. R. Straw of Stowe, enjoyed an automobile trip to Northfield Sunday, where they visited Whittier Gates and Alden Straw at Norwich University. The young men were given a pleasant surprise party and gave their guests a royal entertainment.

T. B. Ellis has been in St. Johnsbury since Saturday, where he has been disposing of a carload of cabbages for the Boynton Fruit Company.

Seven cutters finished work at the Union Granite Company's shed Monday on account of a scarcity of work. This condition prevails in other granite towns and may continue until the first of the year.

Mrs. Geo. M. Powers entertained ten little people and their mothers last Friday afternoon at a Halowe'en party in honor of her daughter, Roberta. Various games and a fish pond were among the entertainment furnished the little guests. Dainty refreshments were served in the dining room, beside each plate being found pretty Halowe'en favors.

We are pleased to note that the condition of Mrs. A. A. Niles, who has been quite seriously ill at the home of her brother, Charles R. Bradley, in Boston, is slightly improved. Mrs. Niles expects to enter a hospital there for treatment soon. Word received this morning from Burlington stated that Mrs. J. Frank Jackson, who underwent an operation at Mary Fletcher hospital last week Tuesday, passed a comfortable night and her condition is considered most favorable.

East Cambridge

Miss Sarah Nye spent the week end at Mr. Quinn's in Underhill.

Bennie Nye spent the week end with his cousin Mary Nye in Johnson.

Plummer Fletcher and wife were business visitors in Cambridge Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Plummer Fletcher spent Saturday and Sunday in Waterville.

George Towle and family of Stowe were visitors at Robert Flanders' Saturday.

Richard Nye of Johnson has been spending several days at his uncle's, N. J. Nye's.

Mrs. Beaman Vance and children of Waterville spent Saturday at Carl Manchester's.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Maynard of Jeffersonville spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. L. E. Tatrow.

Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Terrill who have been visiting their cousin, F. H. Fullington, went to Johnson Wednesday to visit other relatives.

Stephen Crossman came Thursday and has been moving his goods onto the hill farm recently purchased of C. L. Demeritt. His wife and three children came Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Earl Fullington returned Saturday night from their wedding trip and are spending a few days at the homes of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Tatrow and Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Fullington.

FOR SALE BY
ARTHUR L. CHENEY

Morrisville, Vermont

Woman's Club Concert

Members and friends of the Woman's Club in numbers that taxed the seating capacity of the assembly room of the Academy gathered there Monday evening to listen to the entertaining program prepared by the music committee of the Woman's Club. The theme of the evening was Ballads and Folk Songs, and Miss Mary Simpson opened the program with an interesting paper on that type of music. Then ballads from the Italian, German, French, Scotch, Irish, English and American were sung, Miss Simpson prefacing the rendition of each by a word in regard to the history of that particular piece. The program follows:—

Introduction, Miss Simpson
Italian, Old Italian
a. Santa Lucia, Quartette
b. Tuscan Folk Songs, Caracciolo
1. A Flight of Clouds
2. Nearest and Dearest
Mrs. G. M. Powers and Miss Simpson
French, De Lisle
a. The Marseillaise, Quartette
b. Florian's Song, Godard
Mrs. Powers.
German, Keppel
a. Die Lorelei-Sitcher, Quartette Chorus
b. Were I a Bird of Air, Mr. Merrill.
Welsh, Keppel
a. All Thro' the Night, Old Welsh Song
b. March of the Men of Harlech, Mr. Merrill.

Scotch, Keppel
a. The Blue Bells of Scotland, Old Scotch Air
b. Robin Adair, Keppel
c. Annie Laurie, Lady John Scott
Mrs. G. E. Smith.
Irish, Keppel
a. By Bendemeer's Stream, Mrs. Powers.
b. Come Back to Erin, Claribel
c. The Low Backed Car, Samuel Lover
Mr. Reynolds.

English, Johnson
a. Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes, Quartette
b. The Dear Homeland, Mrs. Powers.

American, B. R. Hanby
a. Nellie Gray, B. R. Hanby
b. Old Kentucky Home, S. C. Foster
c. Home, Sweet Home, J. H. Payne
d. America, S. F. Smith—
Music by Old German Audience.

Miss Vida Grant was a recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Parker in Hardwick. Mrs. Delian Decell has returned home from Fanny Allen hospital, where she underwent an operation three weeks ago.

Kufus F. Atchinson is taking a vacation from his R. F. D. duties and with his family is visiting in Huntington.

The Envid Auctioneer.
"Is your wife fond of auctions?"
"Yes," replied Mr. Meekton; "and it's a mystery to me how she can sit still and egg a man along to do nearly all the talking."

Methodist Church

Last Sunday morning the pastor preached a strong sermon to a large congregation. A pleasing feature of the service was a vocal solo by Mrs. Dennis Lawson of Northfield. The anthem, "Festival Gloria in Excelsis" was of a high order. Much credit is due Mr. Lawson for his excellent leadership. Special music for next Sunday: Response, baritone solo and chorus. Anthem, "Stand up for Jesus."

There was a large attendance and a deep interest shown at the Epworth League service last Sunday evening. The service was beautifully led by Miss Thelma Edmunds. The Young Peoples' Choir furnished suitable music for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Lawson rendered a vocal duet, which was a treat to all present. Mr. Best sang a solo, accompanied by autoharp. Next Sunday evening the meeting will be led by Miss Merle Smalley. Subject, "A Prophet's Great Promise to Youth."

A meeting of the Brotherhood was held in the church parlor last evening.

Between forty and fifty from Morrisville attended the Old Home Day service at Elmore last Sunday afternoon. There was also a good representation of Elmore people present. The Young Peoples' Choir, accompanied by the Young Men's Orchestra, and Miss Edmunds as organist, provided some choice selections of music. The pastor rendered a vocal solo, accompanied by autoharp. O. D. Bacon, L. L. Camp, Bert Ward and others gave interesting talks on the Elmore church from its beginning up to the present time, which were intensely interesting.

The Boy Scouts will meet in the vestry of the Universalist church this evening.

A business meeting of the Epworth League was held at the home of Mrs. A. R. Campbell Tuesday afternoon.

Advent Church

Next Sunday, Nov. 7, will be Rally Day in both church service and the Sunday School. This will be the first Sunday with the new pastor, Rev. J. J. Bennett. Special exercises are planned for the school hour.

A hearty invitation is extended to all, especially to members of the Home Department and Cradle Roll.

A Special Piano Bargain

For the month of November we shall sell the McKannon Bros. & Co. piano style 51 mahogany for $247. Everyone knows that this piano sells and always has sold for $350, and the price is blown in the steel plate. There are more McKannon Bros. & Co. pianos in the State of Vermont than any other make of pianos. There are more of them in public halls, schools and lodges than any other make. You will find them in every town in this state and when you see one you see a satisfied customer, and yet at this price we make the terms $10 down and $8 per month. Send for catalogue to Geo. D. Jarvis & Son, The Jarvis Palace Garage Building, Burlington, Vt. —Adv.

BIJOU THEATRE

W. M. JOHNSON, Manager

WEDNESDAY

"The Insurrection"—Three reel Lubin feature, all Lubin features are good and this is extra good.

"Their First Quarrel"—Vitagraph Comedy, by the Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady—Produced by Sidney Drew. Same old story, same old Jar, same going back to Ma and Pa, same old make up and there you are.

THURSDAY

"The Discontented Man"—Lubin
"The Wives of Men"—Western Biograph.

"Some Speed"—Selig.
"On The Border"—Selig.

FRIDAY

"Toil and Tyranny"—Last of twelve dramas on the theme—"Who Pays?"
"Hazzards of Helen."

"Pathe News."

SATURDAY

"Vain Justice"—Essany drama.
"Angel of Spring"—A beautiful vision which came to a society woman and changed her heart from hate to "Mother Love."

"In High Society"—Kalem Comedy.
Some more "Hau."

"Mystery No. 3 of Grand Hotel."

"The Secret Code."

MONDAY

"The Great European War"—Four reels. Genuine War.

TUESDAY

"The Million Dollar Mystery."
"The Inner Brute"—Essany.
"White and Black Snowball"—Vitagraph Comedy.

On Monday there will be a matinee at 3 p. m. Show at 7 and 8:45 p. m. Prices 10 and 20 cents. War Pictures.

The Comeata Lunch

Meals and Lunches at all hours. Hot Frankfurts, Oyster Stews, Sandwiches of all kinds, served right at right price.

Boarders Wanted—Two more good rooms available.

Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Ellsworth
Wilkins Block Lower Main Street

Dollars That Ring
Good hard American dollars grow on the advertising tree.
THIS PAPER GETS AD. RESULTS —RESULTS BRING DOLLARS
(Copyright, 1915, by W. N. U.)

GEORGE P. DROWNE

Satisfaction Guaranteed

Satisfaction, after all, is the big thing and satisfaction consists in not what you pay but in value you get.

Unusual Bargains in Winter Coats

"How reasonable your coats are" is a remark we hear several times each day and the fact that ladies buy here after looking all around is the best evidence that we know of that our prices are lower than they can find elsewhere. If you are thinking of buying a winter coat you will be doing yourself a great injustice if you buy without seeing ours.

Warm Coats For Children

It is usually quite hard to find much of an assortment of coats for children three to six years of age but this season our assortment is better than ever before in these sizes. You will be agreeably surprised to see what a good coat you can buy for a little money.

Good Time to Buy Rubbers

Don't wait till the snow is deep before buying your rubbers. Get them now and have them ready when you want them.

Washable Kid Gloves

Our washable kid gloves at $1.00 are one of the grandest values that we know of. Don't fail to see them.

Fern Dishes and Fancy Baskets

We have just placed on sale some very desirable styles in fern dishes at prices from 25c up.

Latest Style Shirt Waists at 98c

Good value at $1.25 but to move them quickly only 98c.

GEO. P. DROWNE
Morrisville, Vermont